

Invitation to Submit Papers for A Peer-Reviewed Journal

By

International Institute for Complementary & Alternative Therapy
(IICAT)

Dear Author

We are pleased to invite you to contribute to our peer-reviewed journal, HEALING dedicated to exploring the therapeutic potential of cultural practices. Our journal provides a platform for researchers, practitioners, and scholars to publish original papers that address the intersection of culture and therapy in promoting physical and mental health and social wellbeing.

We welcome submissions on a wide range of topics, including but not limited to:

- Theoretical and practical issues related to various allied health sciences.
- Complementary and alternative therapeutic approaches for physical and mental wellbeing.
- Art, music, drama, dance and movements as tools for healing.
- Bio-medical research, case studies, clinical applications and innovative interventions.
- Cross-cultural perspectives on wellness and therapy.
- The role of cultural rituals in mental health treatment.
- Traditional practices and their therapeutic impact.
- Awareness generation on legal and societal issues on related topic.

Submissions are subject to a rigorous peer-review process to ensure high standards of academic integrity and quality.

Key Dates:

- Submission Deadline: 30th November 2024
- Notification of Acceptance: 17th December 2024
- Publication Date: January 2025.

For submission guidelines and further information, please visit our website at www.iicatworld.com or contact us at +91-9830274472 through WhatsApp.

We look forward to receiving your valuable contribution and fostering a meaningful dialogue on cultural therapy.

Warm regards,

Dr. Shyam Aggarwal
