

International Institute for Complementary & Alternative Therapy (IICAT)

Term & Conditions

- IICAT is the pivotal organization to impart education, training and generation of knowledge in every sphere of Indian Culture as well as cultural therapy.
- The scientific research wing of the IICAT is mainly devoted to identify the gaps in the present day research and overcome it in the way of biochemical investigation as well as philosophical theoretical part keeping in mind the deep root of Indian culture.
- IICAT is also involved to conduct Seminars, Conference, Workshop, awareness camp, etc organized by the different wings in different states of this Country and abroad.
- The academic session of IICAT is calendar year, e. January to December of every year.
- The courses offered by the IICAT is centrally controlled by the respective wings and the protocol settled by the Executive Council in General Body meeting.
- The admission procedure is notified every year through the website in Notice.
- The Centers affiliated under IICAT is notified every year with all the updates through E-mail regarding admission, examination process, result, certification, etc.
- Every year a general Convocation is organized by IICAT to distribute the certificates among all the eligible candidate who successfully completed the examinations, centrally or from the affiliated Centres within this Country or abroad.